DIRECTORS NOTES

What a joy to work with this outstanding and remarkable group of hard working teens. Our cast has put in many long hours and lots of high energy to bring the GHS version of Disney’s “High School Musical” to the GHS stage.

The plot is the age-old rivalry between theatre and sports. Ms. Darbus feels her sanctuary of the theatre arts is just as important to the student’s high school development as the hollow gym floor of the jocks where Coach Bolten reigns supreme. When Coach Bolten’s son, Troy, a popular high school basketball star and Gabriella, a shy, academically gifted newcomer discover they share a secret passion for singing and sign up for the lead roles in the school musical, it threatens East High’s rigid social order and sends their peers and teachers into an uproar.

In the end it takes Troy and Gabriella, and their love for music that shows everyone, school is a place to do it all. The musical makes us aware that teamwork and getting along with different people with different ideas is the backbone of all good education. And that sometimes the music helps you get through it all.

Hats off to an outstanding staff that put it all together. Special thanks go to our adult actors, who put in a lot of time and energy to give a real live effect to the show. It is my honor and privilege to work with such an incredible group of dedicated, kid-caring adults.

Enjoy,
RURHansen

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR NOTES

It has been a thrill for me to work with this cast and tech crew on this show. The production staff has been dedicated and creative in helping the students learn the process of putting a show together and creating an amazing product for the audience. Being a part of that process is a cool experience for all involved. The neat part is that the students make it happen. I am so proud of all of their efforts.

Greenville Public Schools is proud to offer our musical theater productions through our Performing Arts Department. We hope you enjoy our productions and continue to support the programs.

As quoted many years ago..."All the world’s a stage, and the men and women are merely players; They have their exits and their entrances, and one man in his time plays many parts.” We all have a place in this world and come from different backgrounds but what this show reminds us is that when we come together we can make great things happen.

To the cast -- make it a great show to remember and as we have heard the theme ring out through the show many times…. “We’re All In This Together”. Thanks for all of the effort you put into this show and for the opportunity to work with you. GO WILDCATS!
