Welcome To
"The Hunchback
Of Notre Dame"

What a BIG BIG set and what a FUN show to put together! "Hunchback," with the exception of two adults, is a student-run production and has stretched everyone, from student performers, to student crew, to student techies, and volunteer parents. Working to put lights, sound and acting together in the right order was a challenge. Is the music too loud? Does thunder come before or after lightning? Are the swords too sharp? (Dull those blades.) Please, don't fall off the set!!! Then of course there's: "Actors PROJECT!" "Pronunciation," (SMILE when you say that). "Feel the emotions of your character come alive." "Move your arms." "Don't play with the props!" And much, much more.

However, in spite of flu, snow days and school activities, hats off to a cast, crew, and techies for a job well done. We are so excited, pleased, and proud of what the students and adults have accomplished. Everyone has risen to the occasion, and in some cases, gone far beyond what was expected of them. Thanks also to all the parents who worked backstage running after the "kids," picking up stuff, pinning costumes and painting faces. Everyone has worked very hard to bring you their best.

Our appreciation to all of the over 85 adults and students involved in our production. We couldn't have done it without any of you. This truly has been a team effort. "Together We Are The Beat!" Our personal thanks to everyone for all the time, love, and energy you have all given this show. Truly it is a job well done.

Mrs. H.

Mission Statement:

The mission of the Greenville High School Performing Arts Department is to give all interested students the opportunity to experience and receive "hands on" information about all aspects of live theater. The productions are an educational tool which give students positive reinforcement for the use of their gifts and talents; and helps them receive experience in team building and interpersonal relationships. The Theater Arts Program helps GHS students celebrate the human experience through a variety of artist theater events. The opportunity to be involved in the program is open to all students with a variety of artistic interests and skills.
